

What a Laugh!

Millions watch him every week on CNN's American Morning where he is the reigning humorist on "90 Second Pop" and "Gimme a Minute." Millions more read his daily award-winning Internet column, the Borowitz Report, and millions of National Public Radio (NPR) listeners know him as the satirical commentator on Weekend Edition Sunday where he finds new targets every week in the onslaught of current events. The Wall Street Journal recently featured him in a front page story as one of America's leading comedic voices, calling him a "Swiftean satirist."

33rd Annual Tiger at Bay Gala

Fair & Balanced? What a Laugh!

Featuring Andy Borowitz, Award-winning Equal Opportunity Offender/Humorist

Date: Thursday, October 14, 2004
Time: Cash Bar Opens at 6:00 p.m.
Dinner Served at 7:00 p.m.
Program (including the Installation of Officers) begins
at 8:00 p.m.

Location: Tallahassee-Leon County
Civic Center

IMPORTANT NOTE: This year's event has RESERVED SEATING for all attendees.

*Table reservations and seating will be determined based on when reservation reply cards are received; the sooner you get your reservations in the better the table. When the space for this event is sold out (and it will), so is your ability to attend; please get your reservations in as soon as possible. Walk-ins will not be accommodated.

This event will use RESERVED SEATING for all attendees. Each member attends free of charge and is allowed to bring one guest free of charge. In addition, each member is allowed to bring up to four additional guests at a cost of $50 per guest. Payment for guests must be received with the registration.

All efforts will be made to secure seating for members and the guests identified (and paid for with the reservation) on their reply cards. For members who are not bringing any paid guests but desire to sit with a group of other members, please note on the reply card the name(s) of the Club members you would like to be seated with. All efforts will be made to accommodate your requests (provided the other members would like you at their table). It would be extremely helpful to have members talk with one another to coordinate seating requests. The tables will seat up to eight (8) per table.

For members who are not bringing paid guests and couldn't care less whether they sit with a “^#*%@$&” Republican or a “sennnnnsitive” Democrat, you will be seated at tables according to when your reservation is received (remember, the sooner it is received the better the table). Tables will be numbered and attendees will receive corresponding numbers when they pick up their name tags. Therefore, there will be no need to huddle around the entrance doors or to stampede into the room. Everyone can enjoy the reception until time to deploy leisurely to their RESERVED seats for what is sure to be a fun evening.

Andy Borowitz is the recipient of the National Press Club's first-ever humor award, former President of the Harvard Lampoon and a best selling author of four humor books including 2003's Who Moved My Soap? The CEO's Guide to Surviving in Prison, and a review of Governor Arnold's First 100 Days in Office, and is well known for his equal opportunity offender prowess. No one is off limits including Kerry and Bush, Cheney and Edwards, Sadaam and Osama (is there a link?), or J-Lo and Affleck.

At the microphone, he has performed numerous live events fusing his cutting-edge content with on-target humor, delving into some of the most crucial and controversial issues of the day involving politics, the media and entertainment. Who better to provide his own unique fair and balanced insights into the upcoming election and the burning issues surrounding it?

Don't miss this special Tiger At Bay Gala featuring Andy Borowitz, one of America's hottest political and entertainment humorists.
